Blues meet Derby

WYCOMBE. Wanderers stage their first friendly of the season tomorrow (Saturday) with an attractive game against a Derby County XI at Loakes Park (3 n.m.).

The First Division side may well include Roy McFarland, the England centre half until recently, in their side. McFarland was troubled with injury last season and may use the game to get match fif. He missed the club's tour to Germany this week but could join missed the club's tour to Germany this week but could join be suffered to the season of the s

New manager Ted Powell has been busy signing new players for the coming season and newcomers Bobby Davics, Alan Davies, John Pricstley, Mick Sorcason, Glen Grward lan Pearson should all play at one stage or other of the game. Most eyes will be centred on Pearson, who has even the control of the game. Most eyes will be written be with the work of the game. Most eyes will be written be was the merchange population of the game. Most eye will be written be was the merchange position of the player the seasons, and Alan Phillips who captained the Butes when they won the league title a season ago.

ANYONE wishing to apply for this season's membership at Wycombe Wanderers F.C. are requested to fill in the form provided with the Annual General Meeting notification before applying to the treasurer's office tomorrow.